SECTION 4.—The annual meeting of the Overseers shall be held in Boston on the last Wednesday of September. The other stated meetings shall be held at Cambridge on Commencement Day, and at Boston on the second Wednesdays of January, April, May, October, December, and on the last Wednesday of February in each year, at some central place to be selected by the Secretary, unless designated by the Board. Special meetings will be convened upon application made to the Secretary, in writing, by the President of the Board, by the President or President and Fellows of the College, or by seven or more Overseers, setting forth the object of the meeting, its time and its place, either in Cambridge or Boston. Meetings may be held by adjournment at such times and places as the Board shall order.

SECT. 5.—Notice of all meetings of the Board shall be given by the Secretary, or in case of his absence, inability, or neglect, or of a vacancy in the office, by the President; the notification of the meeting to specify its time and place, and, if a special one, its object; and to be mailed to the address of each member at least seven days before the time of the meeting. Provided, that in the case of a special meeting, alleged in the application therefor to be one of great urgency, notice will be sufficient if mailed four days before the same. And provided further, that when the Board adjourns to a certain day the Secretary, or in case of his inability the President, shall mail a notice of such adjourned meeting to each member of the Board.

SECT. 6.—The votes and proceedings of the Overseers, with the names of the members present at each meeting, shall be recorded; and the record shall be produced by the Secretary at the Overseers' meetings. At the opening of every meeting the journal of the preceding meeting shall be read by the Secretary, unless otherwise ordered.

SECT. 7.—The Secretary shall have a list of the Overseers ready to be produced at any meeting. He shall also acquaint the presiding officer, in writing, what Committees have not reported, and what business is by assignment to come before the Board.

SECT. 8.—A quorum of not less than nine members shall be requisite for the transaction of any business, except adjourning, or obtaining the attendance of members.

SECT. 9.—There shall always be presented an attested copy of such votes of the Corporation as are laid before the Overseers for their confirmation; and the Secretary shall, from time to time, and as soon as conveniently may be, deliver to the President of the University an attested copy of the votes of the Overseers, to be by him communicated to the Corporation.

SECT. 11.—When the consent of the Overseers shall be asked to a vote of the Corporation electing any person to be a member of the Corporation, an officer of instruction or government, or a lecturer in the University, or conferring on any person an honorary degree, the vote shall be taken as it is taken on other questions unless some member shall ask that a ballot be had, in which case the decision shall be by ballot; except in the case of officers of instruction or government appointed for not more than one year.

SECT. 12.—Names of candidates for honorary degrees shall be referred to a Committee of the Board appointed by the President, to report recommendation. A name not recommended by this Committee shall not be voted upon by the Board unless a vote is requested by seven members of the Board.

SECT. 24.—If any member shall rise to doubt a vote upon its being declared from the chair, the President shall ascertain the number voting in the affirmative and in the negative, without any further debate. He may vote on all questions; but shall not be required to do so, unless the Board shall be equally divided, or unless his vote, if given in the minority, would affect the result.

SECT. 25.—When a vote has passed, it shall be in order for any member to move a reconsideration on the same day; and, when a motion for reconsideration is decided, that decision shall not be reconsidered.

BOARD OF OVERSEERS

ADOPTED DECEMBER 2, 1891

UPON REQUEST OF THE ASSOCIATION OF THE ALUMNI, ESTABLISHING THE

AUSTRALIAN BALLOT

AND PRESCRIBING THE FORM THEREOF, AND THE METHOD OF MAKING NOMINATIONS FOR THE

ELECTION OF OVERSEERS

NOMINATION OF OVERSEERS — AUSTRALIAN BALLOT

Nominations of candidates for election as Overseers, to a number double the number of vacancies to be filled, may be made by the Association of the Alumni in such manner as the Association shall prescribe. Nominations of one or more candidates may also be made by the alumni of the College of five years' standing, by certificate signed by not less than one hundred of such alumni. All nominations shall be addressed to the Secretary of the Board of Overseers and filed at the office of the Board ten days at least prior to Commencement Day.

In case there shall be a failure so to file nominations to a number double the number of Overseers to be elected, the committee hereinafter provided for may cause to be made such number of nominations as they shall deem expedient.

The names of all the candidates so nominated, who are eligible for election, shall be printed on an official ballot. There shall be added, upon the ballot, to the name of each candidate, his residence, the year of his graduation at Harvard College, if he is a graduate of the College, or if a graduate of one of the professional schools of Harvard University and not of the College, the name of the School and the year of his graduation; or, if a graduate of another college, the name of such college and the year of his graduation; and there shall also be added the years of his previous service, if any, on the Board of Overseers.

Names of Overseers eligible for re-election shall, according to seniority of service upon the Board, and, when of equal previous service upon the Board, according to years of graduation in the College, be placed at the head of the list of candidates upon the ballot. Names of other candidates who are graduates of the College or of the professional schools shall follow in the order of their graduation. When two or more candidates are of the same year, their names shall be put in alphabetical order. Names of candidates who are not graduates of Harvard College or of its professional schools shall be placed after those of Harvard graduates in alphabetical order.

There shall be left at the end of the list of candidates as many blank spaces as there are Overseers to be elected, in which spaces the voter may write or insert the name of any person, not printed on the ballot, for whom he desires to vote.

A square of sufficient size to contain a cross mark [X] shall be printed on the right of the line containing the name of each candidate, and at the right of each blank space provided for the writing or insertion of other names to be voted for. There shall be a statement upon the face of the ballot of the number of Overseers to be elected, and for what terms they are to be elected; and such further information or instruction to the voter as may be judged necessary; as, for instance, the words "vote for not more than six," "mark a cross [X] in the square at the right of the name of each candidate for whom you intend to vote." If a candidate is nominated, not by the Association of Alumni, but by a certificate signed by alumni, a statement of such fact shall be added to his name upon the ballot.

Upon the back of the ballot shall be printed the words "Official Ballot for Overseers of Harvard College," and the date of the election, with a fac-simile of the signature of the Secretary of the Board of Overseers. The names of all the Overseers in service with their respective terms of service shall also be printed upon the back of the ballot.

Each elector qualified to vote for Overseers shall, on application to the inspectors of polls at the voting place, receive an official ballot. He shall prepare his ballot for the purpose of voting by marking, in the square provided therefor, a cross [X] at the right of the name of each candidate of his choice, or by writing or inserting the name of any candidate not printed in the official ballot, in the blank space provided for the purpose, and by marking a cross [X] in the square at the right of the name so written or inserted. In offering his ballot for deposit in the ballot box, he shall present it for the inspection of the inspectors of polls with the official endorsement hereinbefore required uppermost.

None but official ballots shall be received or counted. Ballots shall be counted as cast only for those candidates against whose names crosses have been marked as above required, and no regard shall be given to marks made outside of the squares printed upon the ballots. If more names are duly marked in the manner required than there are Overseers to be elected, the entire ballot shall be set aside and not counted.

The inspectors of polls may furnish an official ballot to an elector who has already received one or more ballots, in place of a ballot which has been spoiled or defaced.

The official ballots shall be furnished by the Board of Overseers, and shall be prepared under the supervision of a committee of the Overseers to be appointed for the purpose, who shall, subject to the provisions of law, also have general supervision of the election. The committee shall, as early as possible after the expiration of the time for filing nominations, cause the list of nominations received to be printed in two or more newspapers in Boston, substantially in the manner in which they are to appear upon the official ballot; and they shall cause sample ballots, without the fac-simile endorsement, together with information as to the manner of making nominations and of voting, to be prepared and to be posted and placed in the polling room in such numbers as they shall deem expedient.

THE ACT ESTABLISHING THE OVERSEERS OF HARVARD COLLEGE.

At a General Court held at Boston, on the 8th of September, in the year 1642.

WHEREAS, through the good hand of God upon us, there is a College founded in Cambridge, in the County of Middlesex, called HARVARD COLLEGE, for the encouragement whereof this Court has given the sum of four hundred pounds, and also the revenue of the ferry betwixt Charlestown and Boston, and that the well ordering and managing of the said College is of great concernment, —

It is therefore ordered by this Court and the authority thereof, that the Governor and Deputy-Governor for the time being, and all the magistrates of this jurisdiction, together with the teaching elders of the six next adjoining towns, — viz., Cambridge, Watertown, Charlestown, Boston, Roxbury, and Dorchester, — and the President of the said College for the time being, shall, from time to time, have full power and authority to make and establish all such orders, statutes, and constitutions as they shall see necessary for the instituting, guiding, and furthering of the said College, and the several members thereof, from time to time, in piety, morality, and learning; as also to dispose, order, and manage, to the use and behoof of the said College and the members thereof, all gifts, legacies, bequeaths, revenues, lands, and donations, as either have been, are, or shall be conferred, bestowed, or in any ways shall fall or come to the said College.

And whereas it may come to pass that many of the said magistrates and elders may be absent, or otherwise employed in other weighty affairs, when the College may need their present help and counsel,— It is therefore ordered, that the greater number of magistrates and elders which shall be present, with the President, shall have the power of the whole. Provided, that if any constitution, order, or orders, by them made, shall be found hurtful unto the said College, or the members thereof, or to the weal public, then, upon appeal of the party or parties grieved unto the company of Overseers first mentioned, they shall repeal the said order or orders, if they shall see cause, at their next meeting, or stand accountable thereof to the next General Court.

[This act is copied from “The General Laws of the Massachusetts Colony, revised and published by order of the General Court in October, 1658”; which was the second edition of the Laws of the Colony, and was printed in 1660. It varies slightly in phraseology from the Act contained in the Records of the General Court, vol. ii, page 24.]

The Charter, varying slightly in phraseology, is also contained in the Records of the General Court, vol. iv, page 10.]

III

AN APPENDIX TO THE COLLEGE CHARTER, GRANTED BY AN ACT OF THE GENERAL COURT OF THE COLONY, PASSED A.D. 1657.

At a General Court held at Boston, the 14th of October, 1657.

IN answer to certain proposals presented to this Court by the Overseers of HARVARD COLLEGE, as an appendix to the College Charter, it is ordered,—

The Corporation shall have power, from time to time, to make such orders and by-laws, for the better ordering and carrying-on of the work of the College, as they shall see cause, without dependence upon the consent of the Overseers foregoing. Provided always, that the Corporation shall be responsible unto, and those orders and by-laws shall be alterable by, the Overseers, according to their discretion.

And when the Corporation shall hold a meeting, and agreeing with College servants, for making of orders and by-laws, for debating and concluding of affairs concerning the profits and revenues of any lands or gifts, and the disposing thereof (provided that all the said disposals be according to the will of the donors), for managing of all emergent occasions, for the procuring of a general meeting of the Overseers and Society in great and difficult cases, and in cases of non-agreement, and for all other College affairs to them pertaining,—in all these cases the conclusion shall be valid, being made by the major part of the Corporation, the President having a casting vote. Provided always, that, in these things also, they be responsible to the Overseers as aforesaid.

And in case the Corporation shall see cause to call a meeting of the Overseers, or the Overseers shall think good to meet of themselves, it shall be sufficient unto the validity of College acts, that notice be given to the Overseers in the six towns mentioned in the printed law, anno 1642, when the rest of the Overseers, by reason of the remoteness of their habitations, cannot conveniently be acquainted therewith.

THE ARTICLES OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS, CONFIRMING AND SECURING TO HARVARD COLLEGE THE PERPETUAL POSSESSION AND ENJOYMENT OF ALL ITS ESTATES, RIGHTS, POWERS, AND PRIVILEGES.

CHAPTER V

SECT. I.—The University

ARTICLE 1.—Whereas our wise and pious ancestors, so early as the year one thousand six hundred and thirty-six, laid the foundation of HARVARD COLLEGE, in which University many persons of great eminence have, by the blessing of God, been initiated in those arts and sciences which qualified them for public employments both in Church and State; and whereas the encouragement of arts and sciences and all good literature tends to the honor of God, the advantage of the Christian religion, and the great benefit of this and the other United States of America,—It is declared that the President and Fellows of Harvard College in their corporate capacity, and their successors in that capacity, their officers and servants, shall have, hold, use, exercise, and enjoy all the powers, authorities, rights, liberties, privileges, immunities, and franchises which they now have, or are entitled to have, hold, use, exercise, and enjoy; and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed unto them, the said President and Fellows of Harvard College, and to their successors, and to their officers and servants respectively, forever.

ART. 2.— And whereas there have been at sundry times, by divers persons, gifts, grants, devises of houses, lands, tenements, goods, chattels, legacies, and conveyances, heretofore made either to Harvard College, in Cambridge, in New England, or to the President and Fellows of Harvard College, or to the said College by some other description, under several charters successively,— It is declared that all the said gifts, grants, devises, legacies, and conveyances are hereby forever confirmed unto the President and Fellows of Harvard College, and to their successors in the capacity aforesaid, according to the true intent and meaning of the donor or donors, grantor or grantors, devisor or devisors.

ART. 3.— And whereas, by an Act of the General Court of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay, passed in the year one thousand six hundred and forty-two, the Governor and Deputy-Governor for the time being, and all the magistrates of that jurisdiction, were with the President, and a number of the clergy in the said Act described, constituted the Overseers of Harvard College; and it being necessary, in this new constitution of government, to ascertain who shall be deemed successors to the said Governor, Deputy Governor, and magistrates,— It is declared that the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Council, and Senate of this Commonwealth are and shall be deemed their successors; who with the President of Harvard College for the time being, together with the ministers of the Congregational churches in the towns of Cambridge, Watertown, Charlestown, Boston, Roxbury, and Dorchester, mentioned in the said Act, shall be, and hereby are, vested with all the powers and authority belonging or in any way appertaining to the Overseers of Harvard College. Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the Legislature of this Commonwealth from making such alterations in the government of the said University as shall be conducive to its advantage, and the interest of the republic of letters, in as full a manner as might have been done by the Legislature of the late Province of the Massachusetts Bay.

VI

AN ACT TO ALTER AND AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE BOARD OF OVERSEERS OF HARVARD COLLEGE.

WHEREAS the members of the Board of Overseers of Harvard College, as heretofore constituted, cannot conveniently nor constantly attend to the diligent discharge of the duties enjoined on it:—

SECTION 1. — The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Counsellors, President of the Senate, and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth, and the President of Harvard College for the time being, with fifteen ministers of Congregational churches and fifteen laymen all inhabitants within the State, to be elected as is hereafter mentioned, shall forever hereafter constitute the Board of Overseers of Harvard College; they, or the major part of them present at any legal meeting, to exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers, and privileges, and to be subject to all the duties, of the existing Board of Overseers of Harvard College. Provided, however, that all the ministers of Congregational churches who are members of that Board shall remain members of the Board of Overseers established by this Act, so long as they shall continue ministers respectively of their Congregational churches, and no longer.

[SECT. 2. — As soon as conveniently may be after this Act shall be in force, the present Secretary of the Board of Overseers, or, if that office be vacant, the President or a major part of the Fellows of Harvard College, shall call a meeting of the Overseers of Harvard College, to be held at some suitable time and place, for electing fifteen laymen, inhabitants of the State, to be members of the Board of Overseers; the said meeting to be notified by publishing the time and place of holding the same, in each of the public newspapers printed in Boston, ten days at the least before the time of holding the same; and the said elections to be made by ballot, by the major part of the Overseers present; and all persons who then, if this Act had not been in force, would have been members of the Board of Overseers of Harvard College, shall have right to meet and vote in the said elections.]

SECT. 3. — The Board of Overseers, as constituted by this Act, may, at any legal meeting, choose by a majority of votes a Secretary, when that office shall be vacant, who shall be under oath truly to record all the votes and proceedings of the Board, and faithfully to discharge all the duties of his office; and the said Board may at any legal meeting, by a majority of votes, determine from time to time when and in what manner its meetings shall be held, called and notified: [and, at any legal meeting of the said Board, the Governor, if present, shall preside; if not, the Lieutenant-Governor, if present, shall preside; in their absence, the oldest member of the Council present shall preside: if they also be absent, the President of the Senate shall preside, if present; but in his absence also, the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall preside; and if neither of them be present, the greater part of the Overseers present at such meeting shall choose a president pro tempore, and until one of the officers aforesaid shall be present.] Provided, nevertheless, that the Secretary of the Overseers shall have power to call a meeting of the said

Board, at such times as he shall be thereto requested by the President and Fellows of Harvard College; such meeting to be notified as the said Board shall direct.

SECT. 4. — [When any minister of any Congregational church, being a member of the said Board, shall cease to have the ministerial relation he now has, or may have had at the time of his election, or,] when any member of the elective part of the said Board shall remove out of the State, the place of such [minister or] member shall thereupon become vacant. And the said Board may at any legal meeting, by a vote of the greater number present, remove from his place any member of the elective part of the said Board who shall neglect to attend the meetings thereof, without reasonable excuse, when duly notified, or who by his immoral conduct shall have rendered himself unworthy of holding his place; but, before any vote shall pass to remove any member, he shall have reasonable notice, and a fit opportunity to be heard in his defence.

[SECT. 5. — For establishing a perpetual succession in the elective part of the said Board, whenever a vacancy shall happen therein, by death, resignation, or otherwise, the Overseers may, at a legal meeting, by a majority of the votes present, fill up such vacancy by electing therefor some suitable person, who shall be an inhabitant of the State. Provided, however, that no minister of any Congregational church shall be so elected when there are fifteen ministers of Congregational churches members of the elective part of the said Board, nor shall any laymen be so elected when there are fifteen laymen members of the elective part of the said Board; but, in all cases when there are fifteen ministers and fifteen laymen members of the elective part of the said Board, there shall not be deemed to be any vacancy therein.]

SECT. 6.—This Act shall be in force when the Overseers of Harvard College, as heretofore constituted, and the President and Fellows of Harvard College, shall agree to accept the provisions in this Act contained.

[March 6, 1810.]

VII

AN ACT TO REPEAL AN ACT ENTITLED "AN ACT TO ALTER AND AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE OVERSEERS OF HARVARD COLLEGE," AND TO REGULATE CERTAIN MEETINGS OF THAT BOARD.

[SECTION 1.—An Act made and passed the seventh day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten, entitled "An Act to alter and amend the Constitution of the Board of Overseers of Harvard College," be, and the same is hereby, repealed; and the Board of Overseers, from and after the passing of this Act, shall be constituted in the same way and manner, and be composed of the same persons, and no others, that it would have been had the same Act never been made or passed.

[SECT. 2.—There shall be a meeting of the Board of Overseers of Harvard College, as the same will be constituted after the passing of this Act, on the second Wednesday of the first session of the General Court annually, in the Senate Chamber, at three o'clock in the afternoon (unless otherwise ordered by the said Board of Overseers), if the General Court shall remain so long in session, and at such other times and places as the said Board shall order; at which annual meeting it shall be the duty of the Secretary of said Board, at the first meeting thereof, to lay before them the records and proceedings of the Corporation of Harvard College, and of the said Board of Overseers, which have been had since the passing of the Act aforesaid, which is hereby repealed; and, in like manner, all the proceedings which may have been had by said Corporation, and Board of Overseers, shall be laid before them at their next succeeding meeting, to be held agreeably to the provisions of this Act.]

[Feb. 29, 1812.]

[This Act was not assented to by the Overseers, or by the President and Fellows; but its validity was denied by both Boards, and it was repealed by the Act on the next page.]

VIII

[Feb. 28, 1814.]

IX

AN ACT IN ADDITION TO "AN ACT TO ALTER AND AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE BOARD OF OVERSEERS OF HARVARD COLLEGE."

[SECT. 2.— This Act shall be in force when the Overseers of Harvard College, and the President and Fellows of Harvard College shall accept the provisions of the same.] [March 28th, 1834.]

[The provisions of this Act were accepted by the Overseers on the 16th of February, 1843; and by the President and Fellows, on the 25th of the same month.]

X

AN ACT TO CHANGE THE ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD OF OVERSEERS OF THE UNIVERSITY AT CAMBRIDGE.

[SECTION 1.— The Board of Overseers of Harvard College, as constituted by existing laws, shall continue until the day of the next annual meeting of the General Court, and no longer.]

SECT. 2.— [The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, President of the Senate, and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth, the Secretary of the Board of Education, and] the President and Treasurer of Harvard College, for the time being, together with thirty other persons, as hereinafter defined and described, and no others, shall [on and after the day of the next annual meeting of the General Court] constitute the Board of Overseers of Harvard College; they, or the major part of them present at any legal meeting, to exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers, and privileges, and to be subject to all the duties, of the existing Board of Overseers.

[SECT. 3. — The thirty persons, who, in addition to the ex-officio members thereof, now constitute the Board of Overseers, shall be divided into three classes of ten each, by lot or otherwise, as they themselves may determine; and the persons of the first class shall go out of office on the day of the next annual meeting of the General Court, and their places be supplied by joint ballot of the Senators and Representatives of the Commonwealth, assembled in one room; and the persons of the second class shall go out of office on the day of the annual meeting of the General Court, which will be in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and their places be supplied in like manner by joint ballot of the Senators and Representatives; and the persons of the third class shall go out of office on the day of the annual meeting of the General Court, which will be in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and their places be supplied in like manner by joint ballot of the Senators and Representatives. Provided, that the persons of each of the said outgoing classes shall continue in office for two months after the day of the said annual meeting of the General Court, unless their successors shall have been sooner chosen by the Senators and Representatives.]

SECT. 4. — [When the Board of Overseers shall have been wholly renewed in the manner prescribed in the foregoing section,] the members thereof shall be divided into six equal classes [by subdivision of the previous classes into two each, according to lot or otherwise, as the Board may determine, and having regard

(Commencement.*)

[SECT. 5.— Any vacancy occurring in the said Board of Overseers, whether by death, resignation, removal from the Commonwealth, or otherwise, shall be filled by joint ballot of the Senators and Representatives, as hereinbefore provided; and if the General Court shall omit to fill, within three months from the day of its annual meeting as aforesaid, any existing vacancy, then such vacancy may be filled by the remaining Overseers; but the person so elected to fill any vacancy, whether by Senators and Representatives or by the Overseers, shall be deemed a member of, and go out of office with, the class to which his predecessor belonged.]

[SECT. 6.— The Governor, if present, shall preside at any legal meeting of said Board of Overseers; if not, the Lieutenant-Governor; in their absence, the President of the Senate; in his absence, the Speaker of the House of Representatives; but if neither of the persons named be present, then the meeting shall elect a president pro tempore;] and the said Board may choose by majority of votes a Secretary, when that office shall be vacant, who shall be under oath truly to record the votes and proceedings of the Board, and faithfully to discharge all the duties of his office, and the said Board may make, establish, and alter such rules of proceeding, and other by-laws, as they shall deem meet, provided that the same be not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the Commonwealth.

* By Act of 1865, see page 48.

SECT. 7.—[No member of the General Court which elects shall be eligible to a place in the said Board of Overseers; and] no person shall be re-eligible for more than one term immediately succeeding that for which he shall have been first elected.

SECT. 8.—This Act shall be in force when the Board of Overseers as heretofore constituted, and the President and Fellows of Harvard College, respectively, at meetings held for that purpose during the present session of the General Court, shall by vote have assented to the same; provided, that nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prejudice any constitutional powers which may be possessed by the General Court.

SECT. 9.—All Acts, or parts of Acts, inconsistent herewith are repealed. [May 22, 1851.]

[This Act was assented to by the President and Fellows on the 22d of May, 1851; and by the Overseers on the same day.]

SECT. 2.—This Act shall take effect from and after its passage. [March 3, 1852.]

XII

SECTION 1. — The places of the successive classes in the Board of Overseers of Harvard College, and the vacancies in such classes, shall hereafter be annually supplied by ballot of such persons as have received from the College a degree of bachelor of arts, or master of arts, or any honorary degree, voting on Commencement Day in the city of Cambridge; such election to be first held in the year eighteen hundred and sixty-six; provided, however, that no member of the Corporation, and no officer of government or instruction in said College, shall be eligible as an Overseer, or entitled to vote in the election of Overseers; and provided, further, that no person who has received from said College the degree of bachelor of arts shall be entitled to vote for Overseers before the fifth annual election after the graduation of his class.

SECT. 2. — The Board of Overseers shall annually appoint one principal and two or more assistant inspectors of polls, who shall, on Commencement Day, from the hour of ten in the forenoon to the hour of four in the SECT. 3.—The Board of Overseers shall give notice of the place of the polls, the hours during which they are open, and the number of Overseers to be elected, by publishing the same at least ten days before Commencement Day in some newspaper printed in the city of Boston.

SECT. 4.—The terms of office of the existing classes of Overseers are extended to the close of Commencement Day of the year in which such terms severally expire; the terms of office of the classes hereafter elected shall successively expire at the close of Commencement Day each year in their order; and the persons elected Overseers on any Commencement Day shall supply the places of the class of Overseers which goes out of office at the close of that day, and the vacancies then existing in said Board.

SECT. 5.—Whenever there shall be a failure on Commencement Day to supply any places or vacancies in the Board of Overseers, the same may be filled by vote of the remaining Overseers; and any persons elected to fill a vacancy shall be deemed to be a member of, and to go out of office with, the class to which his predecessor belonged.

SECT. 6.—The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, President of the Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Secretary of the Board of Education, shall not be ex-officio members of the Board of Overseers of Harvard College after this Act shall be in force.
